

Matthew J. Thurtell, MBBS, FRACP

Specialty: Neuro-ophthalmology

Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology

Education

- BSc (Medical), Department of Physiology, University of Sydney, Sydney, Australia
- Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery, University of Sydney, Sydney, Australia
- MSc (Medicine), Department of Medicine, University of Sydney, Sydney, Australia

Post Graduate Education

- Intern, John Hunter Hospital, Newcastle, Australia
- Resident (Internal Medicine), Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney, Australia
- Resident (Neurology), Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney, Australia
- Fellow (Neuro-Ophthalmology), Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, OH
- Fellow (Neuro-Ophthalmology), Emory University, Atlanta, GA

Certification

- Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates
- Royal Australasian College of Physicians

Professional Affiliations

- American Academy of Neurology
- Australian Medical Association
- Australian and New Zealand Association of Neurologists
- Royal Australasian College of Physicians
- Sydney University Medical Society

Research Interests/Current Projects

- Eye-movement disorders and their treatment
- Eye movement kinematics
- Clinical neuro-ophthalmology
- Clinical neuro-otology